

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Unit of work	Changes over Time	Neil Armstrong & Mae Jamison	Elizabeth I and Elizabeth II
Link to Programme of study	Changes within living memory. Children will learn how they themselves, schools, toys, transport, shopping and the living room have changed over time.	A significant event in world history. Children will learn the legacy of Neil Armstrong and subsequent people who went into space.	A significant individual in history. Children will learn about Elizabeth I and how the world has changed since her reign.
Composite knowledge	The past is really different from the now. Is that true? Key Concept: Cause & consequence Enquiry 1: How have I changed over time? Continuity and Change + Sources and Artefacts Enquiry 2: How have schools changed over time? Continuity and Change + Sources and Artefacts Enquiry 3: How have toys changed over time? Continuity and Change + Sources and Artefacts Enquiry 4: How has transport changed over time? Continuity and Change + Sources and Artefacts Enquiry 5: How has shopping changed over time? Continuity and Change + Sources and Artefacts Enquiry 6: How has the living room changed over time? Continuity and Change + Sources and Artefacts Substantive Concepts: Achievements (2) Cultural change (1)	Who were Neil Armstrong & Mae Jamison and why are they remembered today? Key Concept: Similarity, difference & significance Who is Neil Armstrong? What did he achieve? Who is Mae Jamison? What did she achieve? Who is Tim Peake? What did he achieve? What are the similarities and differences between Neil Armstrong and Tim Peake? Substantive Concepts: Achievements (3) Cultural change (2)	Why were Queen Elizabeth I & Queen Elizabeth II significant? Key Concept: Similarity, difference & significance Why was Queen Elizabeth I significant? What is a monarch? What were the main events in QE I life? What was life like when Queen Elizabeth I was alive? When we compare the times of Elizabeth I and II what is the same and what is different? Why was Queen Elizabeth II significant? What were the main events in QE II life? What was life like when Queen Elizabeth II was alive? When we compare the times of Elizabeth I and II what is the same and what is different? Substantive Concepts: Ruler (2) Achievements (4) Cultural change (3)
Intentional knowledge they need to understand (Component knowledge)	Chronology: Past and now Beyond living memory and within living memory Continuity & change: Children will compare the past with the now. They'll look at how they themselves, schools, toys, transport, shopping and the living room have each continued and changed over time.	Chronology: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • First person on the moon • 1960-1969 • First African Woman to become an astronaut • First British Person to perform a space walk Significant individuals: Neil Armstrong, Buzz	Chronology: Children will have the opportunity to sequence the events of Elizabeth I's life and compare her timeline with Elizabeth II. Children will place significant events on two timelines to compare what happened (is happening) during their reigns. (Birth, when they became queen, significant events etc) Significant individuals:

	Sources/Artefacts: Video and photos the past and now	Aldrin, Katherine Johnson, Mary Jackson and Dorothy Johnson Vaughn, Tim Peake. Sources/Artefacts: video of moon landing Photos, books and documentaries. Now press play – Neil Armstrong	Significant Individual – Elizabeth – the last Tudor monarch. Similarity – comparison between Elizabeth I and II Difference – How each ruled and how the world has changed between their reigns. We'll look at their influence, travel and geographical changes, and the impact of technology. Continuity & change: Children compare what was the same and how things were different (-perhaps through technological developments and changes in society) for the Elizabeths. They'll look at how the role of the monarch has developed over time. Cause & consequence: Children will discuss the role of the monarch in context to why we have a royal family and the impact that has on their lives. Sources/Artefacts: Children will observe art depicting QE I and II. The children will access web pages and books about Elizabeth I and II.
National Curriculum KS1 (skills)	Pupils should about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Changes within living memory. Where appropriate, these should be used to reveal aspects of change in national life ➤ Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally ➤ The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements. ➤ Significant historical events, people and places in their own locality ➤ Awareness of the past, using common words and phrases relating to the passing of time ➤ Identifying similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods ➤ Use a wide vocabulary of everyday historical terms ➤ They should be able to ask and answer questions
Vocabulary	Vocab: Timeline, past, now, same, different, continued, changed, sources, artefacts	Vocab: Commander, achievements, breakthrough, plaque, exploration, pioneer, explorer	Vocab: Explorer, voyage, civilisations, centuries, disease, legacy, colonized, exploration
Links to prior	Interpreting History through sources/artefacts : Children will explore a variety of primary & secondary sources and be able to respond and recall

knowledge (EYFS)	information e.g. objects, photos, non-fiction books etc Similarity, difference and significance (significant individuals/events, civilizations) Know about people who help us in our community; Know about the important people in their lives Continuity and change (settlement) Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now (ELG) Cause & consequence (conflict) Understand how their own behaviour impacts upon others Understand Chronology (Main events/people): timelines Understand change over time; Understand and follow a visual timetable for daily routines; Know things that have happened in the past; Sequence events and stories with an understanding of chronological order
Key knowledge for assessment	The past is really different from the now. Is that true? How have they themselves, schools, toys, transport, shopping and the living room changed over time?	Who is the first man to land on the moon? When did he land on the moon? Who are 3 ladies that helped him get to the moon? Who was Neil Armstrong and why is he remembered today?	What is a monarch? When did QE I and II rein? What were the main events in QE I life? What were the main events in QE II life? What was life like when Queen Elizabeth I was alive? What was life like when Queen Elizabeth II was alive? When we compare the times of Elizabeth I and II what is the same and what is different? What is their legacy? Why were Queen Elizabeth I & Queen Elizabeth II significant?
Cross Curricular Links	PSHE Links to Maths – ordering events	Science -Space Links to Maths – ordering events Art/ DT create space crafts and sketches Science - Materials	Science- materials. Links to Maths – ordering events Geography- Where is the UK? Where did they live in the UK? Art/ Geography- creating our own maps
Oracy & Outdoor Learning Links	Discussion of similarities and differences. Discussion of things that have continued and changed. Learning walk around the school, working as historians to discover more about Wilbury's past. Recall End of topic quiz/debate- The past is really different from the now. Is that true?	Fact file hunt Role play – Lunar landing Recall and talk about some key information of the first moon landing Discuss the conflict and race to be first on the moon between USA and Russia End of topic quiz- What do we know about Neil Armstrong?	Fact file hunt, Roleplay Debate what makes a person historically significant. Talk about the differences and similarities. Recall and talk about key facts. Oracy- Discuss the role of the monarch in context to why we have a royal family and the impact that has on their lives. End of topic quiz- What do we know about Queen Elizabeth I & Queen Elizabeth II?