Teaching Support Assistant (SEN UNIT Supporting Autistic Children)

Are you enthusiastic about children and have a caring, nurturing approach?
We are looking for an excellent and inspirational teaching support assistant to join us in an exciting opportunity to be part of a team in a specialist SEND unit in the heart of Edmonton.

The Children First Academy Trust is a growing Trust, bringing together schools that believe in the power of excellent education.
We value and invest in our staff. We're creating a structured professional learning offer and enjoying embedding a culture of continuous development for all.
If you join us you will want to dedicate yourself to mastering your craft as an educator, you will be surrounded by evidence-based pedagogy and a cutting-edge curriculum. We have plenty of space for you and your pupils to develop; with wonderful fields and opportunities for outside classrooms.
Our teachers are leading practitioners who are passionate about making the best decisions for their pupils, we warmly welcome diversity of experience.
You will need to be completely committed to making a difference to the lives of children because many are at risk of not succeeding. They need you alongside them, helping them to outrun the challenges of economic disadvantage.

You'll also have:

- a local government pension scheme with generous employer contribution
- Employee benefits and rewards, including a cycle to work scheme
- Employee assistance programme

We are looking for a competent practitioner to;

- Complement the teacher's delivery of the curriculum under the direction and supervision of qualified teachers
- Work collaboratively with teaching staff and share in their responsibility for the development and education of all pupils
- Use their knowledge and skills when assisting with planning, monitoring, assessing and managing classes

Responsibilities will include;

- Contribute to teachers' planning and preparation of lessons at various stages of the planning cycle including resources
- Provide support for children, within the team, when a teacher is unavailable
- Support teachers in evaluating pupils' progress through a range of assessment activities
- Implement all school policies relating to behaviour and safeguarding
- Contribute to curriculum development, school policies and procedures

Not sure you have everything you need to fulfil the role? We recommend you apply; we are happy to develop someone, our staff are brilliant and will support you all the way. Have a look at our website and get in touch to book a time to visit us.
